AYER'S Cathartic Pills

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects and judge of their Virtues

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

Dr. J. C. Ayer. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have ... Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach ... at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. ... Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them ... are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided ... a remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

Post Office, Hartland, Liv. Co. Mich., Nov. 15, 1855. Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell ... sick and pining away for months ... great expense, but got no better ... your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body ... our two children of bloody dysentery ... had it bad, and my wife cured it with two doses of your pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars ... pills, and lost much time without being cured ... then. Such a medicine as yours ... honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston. Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855. Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood. JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856. Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes of the Methodist Episc. Church. Pulaski House, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856. Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

Senate Chamber, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855. Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout — a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING NOV. 14, 1863

An Abolitionist

Many men—and among them are some who are thoroughly true to the cause of the Union—seem to have a mortal horror and fear of being called abolitionists. It is the great bug bear of the day and seems in some cases to be almost sufficiently terrible to frighten men away from their patriotism. We admit that in years gone by, for various reasons which we cannot now specify, there was a prejudice against the name which induced many, even philanthropic men, to repudiate all connection with the idea and the schemes of anti slavery which the name suggested. But all this is now changed. The sneering charge has in a great measure lost its terrors—it ought to have none in any case. It is no shame for any man to say with Gen Logan, in the brilliant and truthful words of his magnificent speech at Chicago:

"If it makes a man an abolitionist to love his country, then I love my country, am willing to live for it and willing to die for it. If it makes a man an abolitionist to love and revere that flag, be it so. If it makes an abolitionist to love to hear the Star Spangled Banner sung, and be proud to hear that such were ever penned, or could ever be sung upon the battle field by our soldiers, then I am proud to be an abolitionist, and I wish to high heaven that we had a million more of their soldiers to night, under our Generals, and then our rebellion would be at an end and peace would again fold her gentle wings over a united Republic, and the old Union, the old friendship and the old love again make happy the land where now the rebel flag flaunts dismally in the sultry Southern air."

And it is no shame for a man to be called an abolitionist, taking the definition of the term from the Southern Literary Messenger published at Richmond, which lately said:

"An abolitionist is any man who does not love slavery for its own sake as a divine institution, who does not worship it as the corner stone of civil liberty, who does not adore it as the only possible social condition on which a permanent republican Government can be created, and who does not in his inmost soul desire to see it extended and perpetuated over the whole earth, as a means of human reformation second in dignity, importance and sacredness to the Christian religion. He who does not love African slavery with this love is an abolitionist."

Taking this meaning of the reproachful word, we should like to know what Northern patriot will be ashamed to be called or to be known as an opponent of a system which is at war with the rules of God's word—being simply tolerated and never justified thereby—not less than with the highest and best interests of mankind! Let, then, no honest man be disturbed or grieved because any poor Northern traitor calls him an abolitionist; the attempted abuse from such a source is a high compliment, for it signifies that its recipient is ranked among those who love their country better than slavery—who will maintain its flag even though the scourge of humanity—the cause of the war, and the disgrace of our free republic should be sunk in utter and unfathomable destruction.

Side Issues.—It almost always happens that when a great work is in progress, the accomplishment of which requires all the ability, enterprise and resources of its well wishers, there will be many among these who suffer themselves to turn away from the instant, pressing duty for purposes of theoretical speculation. They seem to have faith to believe that somehow the great end is to be gained, and they are anxious in advance to devise schemes to make it subserve particular fancies or interests. The great national war is an instance of this. Before it is finished, and while its protection demands the earnest consecration of all our efforts, we find all sorts of side issues raised, and factions formed for the furtherance of plans, the scope of which is narrow, personal or political. This is to be regretted. The country wants the united efforts of all its citizens to put down the rebellion. It wants union of loyal men for the sake of the Union, and without this, it is very certain, there will be nothing of the nation left about which to make discussions. Questions of re-construction, of what shall be done with the negroes, and of all the complications which the close of the war is likely to present, can be postponed till the close of the war comes. In the meantime, the great issue presses; let us all agree in forcing it to a just and patriotic conclusion.

Assistant Provost Marshal General.—We learn that Lieut Col. Thos C English, U. S. A., has been appointed by the Secretary of War to fill the above position in this District. The selection of this officer is an excellent one, and we doubt not will give general satisfaction. Maj Lugenbeel, his predecessor, returned yesterday from a tour of observation in the Upper Willamette valley, where we are glad to learn, he found no reason for supposing that there was any of the active disloyalty which has been reported, or which is likely to show itself in acts of resistance to the laws of the United States.

To be Delivered From.—Inigo, of the Golden Era, asks to be saved especially from that large and growing class of officers holding high rank in the service, who are last in war, first in peace, and forever in the pockets of their countrymen.

An Ancient Copperhead Recognized by his Descendant.—The Cleveland Herald reports a discussion at Revalton, Ohio, between A. G. Riddle, late member of Congress from the Cuyahoga district, and C. W. Palmer on one side, and Amos Coe of Cleveland on the other. The question was "Is Vallandigham a traitor?" Palmer read the following words which he said had been addressed by a certain eminent person to the citizens and soldiers of the United States:

"You are promised liberty by the leaders of your affairs, but is there an individual in the enjoyment of it saving your oppressors? Who among you dares to speak or write what he thinks against the tyranny which has robbed you of your property, imprisons your sons, drags you forth to battle and is daily deluging your country with blood? Your country once was happy, and had the proffered peace been embraced the last two years of misery had been spent in peace and plenty, and repairing the desolation of the quarrel."

Coe listened attentively, and nodded approval at every sentence, and at the conclusion exclaimed loudly, "That is good talk."

"Well sir," said Palmer, with an emphasis that thrilled the hearts of the eagerly listening crowd, "that is the language of Benedict Arnold three weeks after he fled, a trembling traitor from West Point."

The Democracy Favor Peace.—In the letter of "Confederate," in the London Times, of September 10th is found the following significant language:

The war will not last more than one year beyond the next Presidential election, even though events should not occur that may bring it to an earlier close. The Northern democrats are now for peace in their hearts and in their private avowals, though their unworthy political leaders, with a view to their approaching election, shrink from confessing and proclaiming it. If they get into power they will first try the now vain attempt of conciliating the South back into the Union, and after the failure of that experiment of reconstruction (too late! too late!) they will accept the necessity of recognition which will have been bequeathed to them by the present Administration. If Lincoln on the other hand is re-elected, the Northern democracy, no longer restrained by the motive now influencing their fears, will soon, commencing in New York, revolutionize the North itself against the abolitionist republicans, or at least create such a state of things as will necessitate the maintenance of repressive armies quite as large at the North as at the South, and that will produce the same result.

"Taxation without Representation."—The Albany Argus has the following: Mrs Dr Lydia Sayer Hasbrouck, who lives in Walkill, won't pay taxes because she can't vote. Last month she was notified by the Highway Overseer of the town to appear on a certain day, with shovel in hand to work out her highway tax. She appeared on the appointed day with her fire shovel, and went to work, but only for five days, when her tax was for ten and a half. She was thereupon arrested upon the complaint of the Overseer. He complains that he "gave Lydia Sayer Hasbrouck, who resides in said district and is assessed to work ten and a half days on the highways therein, notice to appear on the 9th day of September with a good shovel, on the road near the house of A. G. Townley, to do such work, and that the said L. Sayer Hasbrouck did so appear with a small fire shovel, whereupon the said deponent furnished the said Hasbrouck with a good shovel and directed her to assist in filling the wagons that were on the ground, but that the said Hasbrouck did not work faithfully, remaining idle a considerable portion of the time each wagon was filling, standing leaning on her shovel, talking and calling the attention of other workmen from their work, at other times sitting during the whole time of filling the wagon, sometimes with one hand tossing pebbles into the wagon, and at others reading a paper."

Game.—Never at any time since our residence in Victoria, have we seen game so plentiful as at present. Every game store is crammed with geese, grouse, pheasants, duck, deer, &c., and every Indian one meets in the street is nearly bending double beneath the weight of the game, which a shot from his unerring musket has brought low. Geese, fine fat fellows, may be bought for four bits, canvas back mallard, teal, buffle-head or black ducks, from two to four bits per pair, grouse, pheasants, or partridge, (the latter a feeble imitation of the partridges found east of the Rocky Mountains,) for three and four bits per pair. Yesterday three canoe loads of wild fowl were brought to the Songish Indian village, and we heard one trader say yesterday that he purchased, before 12 o'clock, $120 worth. Deer or elk sell at wholesale for five cents per pound. The recent gales on the coast caused the glut by driving immense flocks inland. Verily we are revelling in the fat of the land, for game that in more settled countries is considered a luxury even by the rich, here goes a begging for want of customers.—Victoria paper.

Catholic Prayers for Armies.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph asks the editor of that paper "whether there is any impropriety in praying for the success of the Union armies." To this extremely sensitive individual the editor of the Telegraph says:

It is the bounden duty of all to pray for the success of the Union armies. It is moreover, the duty of every pastor to read the prayers for the ruling Powers. We need only refer to the example of the Archbishop of Baltimore, who was most observant of this rule. We may, also, mention that the same prelate had prepared an admirable pastoral on the duty of the people to support the Government, in which he pointed out, in temperate but emphatic words, what was the duty of the Catholic citizen, but unfortunately, some reverend persons strongly disposed to secession prevailed on him not to publish it. It is our duty to pray for the success of the armies of the United States.

Anecdote of the Banker Belmont.—This New York millionaire and Copperhead is of a nature highly irascible, and when irritated does not hesitate to employ terms more vivid than proper; in fine, he swears occasionally in a manner calculated to impress the hearer with unclerical ideas. On one occasion, so the story runs, Mr B. engaged a new clerk, a quiet, dignified man, who immediately succeeded in exciting his employer's ire and received a large assortment of slight profanities in return. The clerk bore this quietly for some days, but at length, having received more than his fair allowance of denunciations, he got down from his stool, closed his books, and declared that he would no longer submit to this vituperation. Mr B. seemed somewhat dumfounded by such rebellion, but recovering from his discomposure, asked, with a faint imprecation, how much his offended clerk would require for the privilege of being sworn at in his employer's discretion. The answer was, "Double my present salary." "You shall have it," cried B., and immediately opened upon him a fusilade of denunciations better to be imagined than described.

Highly Complimentary.—We are permitted to copy the following extract from a letter written by an officer of high rank in the army of Gen Rosecrans, in relation to the brave conduct of an officer, known to many of our citizens, at the battle of Chickamauga:

"Harker, brother of your Harkers in Portland, commanded a brigade, and no one could excel him for bravery and the elegant and masterly manner in which he handled his men. He had the post of greatest danger too. He is an excellent officer. He escaped without a scratch."

The Names for the Personage.—When Nicholas Biddle (familiarly called Nick Biddle) was connected with the United States Bank there was an old negro named Harry, who used to be loafing about the premises. One day, in a social mood, Biddle said to the darkey, "Well, what is your name, my old friend?" "Harry, sir, ole Harry," said the other, touching his seedy hat. "Old Harry," said Biddle, "why that is the name they give to the devil, is it not?" "Yes sir," said the colored gentleman, "sometimes ole Harry and sometimes ole Nick."

Fort Sumter Reported Taken.

Favorable News from Chattanooga.

Brilliant Successes in the South West.

Riots in the Coal Mines of Pennsylvania.

Salem, Oregon, 2 [illegible] Nov 13, 1862

Cairo, Nov 6th.—Memphis dates are to the 4th. The fight at Collinsville was between 3,000 rebels under Chalmers and 3 regiments of cavalry under Col Hatch. The fight lasted three hours and resulted in the defeat of the rebels. Col Hatch pursued retreating rebels to Coldwater, and at last accounts was skirmishing with them.

New York, Nov 7th.—Returns from Maryland are sufficient to determine that four Union Congressmen are elected and one opposition.

Philadelphia, Nov 7th.—Steamer Sallie from Morris Island, reports that on Saturday and Sunday a terrible bombardment was kept up on Fort Sumter. Three monitors and forts Gregg and Wagner were all engaged. On Monday, while the Sallie lay off Hilton Head, Captain O'Neal, of the Invalid Corps, reported that news had reached him from reliable sources that Fort Sumter was in our possession, having been carried by assault, and was occupied by the 114th Pennsylvania.

Hatch has driven Chalmers across the Tallahatchie, punishing him severely.

Richardson with 1,500 men struck Memphis and Charleston railroad six miles southwest of Salisbury Thursday morning, burning the trestle works and tearing up the road.

The report of Federal possession of Sumter is not likely to be correct, as we have dates from Richmond to the 5th, which states that monitors were still firing at Sumpter.

New York, Nov 7th.—Gold 145.

Philadelphia, Nov 6th.—A report has been received of a terrible riot in the coal regions around Mauch Chunk. Four men were killed.

New York, Nov 7th.—The special to the World says the Army of the Potomac is in motion, and in a direction which indicates the abandonment of the Warrenton route to Richmond. Winter quarters are probably in view.

Chicago, Nov 7th, 11:50 a. m.—A special from Washington last night says Gen Steadman, commander of one division of the Army of the Cumberland, who has just arrived from Chattanooga, reports that everything is in a satisfactory condition. The capture of Lookout Mountain insures the present occupation of Chattanooga against all assaults from the enemy.

Chattanooga, Nov 6th.—All quiet along the line to-day.

Last night several rebel camps disappeared from front of our right.

Chicago, Nov 7th.—At the State election in Minnesota Thursday, 3d inst., Stephen Miller, Union candidate for Governor, was elected by a majority of not less than ten thousand. [This is a gain of at least 6,000.]

St Louis, Nov 7th.—Conservatives at Jefferson City admit their majority on the home vote too small to avail much. [Should this prove to be the case, the Immediate Emancipationists have carried the State.]

To the Point.—Henry Winter Davis made a speech at Cooper Institute in New York on the 9th of October. He administered a scathing rebuke to the men of questionable loyalty who oppose the President's action concerning the habeas corpus, and asserted that if the Government had erred it was on the side of lenity and against the blood of the free and loyal States, and not against the time honored liberties of the American people. But the pith of his remarks was the manner in which he held up to view the Copperheads, and the object of the war. He said:

"But what is the object of the war, and how shall we attain it? I say the object of the war is to restore the republican Government in the rebellious States—not to bring back the gentlemen that will strike hands with Seymour when they are restored to power, by a long shot—not to reinstate the old coalition of Northern Democrats, now called Copperheads, and Southern traitors to rule us—not for the purpose of restoring to a broken down aristocratic faction both power and the instrument by which to wield it; but, enlightened by the events of the past two years, I would deal with them according to their deserts and unsettle the foundations of the patriarchal institution and build anew over its ruins."

Here is a point worthy of consideration. The object of the war is not to be perverted "to bring back the gentlemen who will strike hands with Seymour when they are restored to power,"—not to restore the Copperheads to offices of profit, and the Treasury to plunder. That's what's the matter! The Copperheads hold out such inducements to the rebels. "Come back," they say, "and we together, will put down the 'Abolitionists,' and give you just as many niggers as you want."—Appeal.

The following items are from the Golden Age:

From Copeland Townsend, Esq., just arrived from the Flat Head Indian Agency, we learn that Capt John Mullan and his party had left the Cœur d'Alene Mission about the 10th inst., for the Kootenay country, in the best of spirits. The people here are anxious for their success. The Captain and his party are sanguine that their expedition will present another vast gold field to the hopeful public.

Capt Fisk's Northern Overland Escort arrived on the Cottonwood, in Deer Lodge valley, about the 1st inst., and went to Beaver Head with the intention of disposing of the outfit and returning to the Atlantic States via Salt Lake. We learn, also, that a party of surveyors came out with Capt Fisk to survey the boundary line between Washington and Idaho Territories.

Returned from the Plains.—Four Companies "A," "D" and "E," of the 1st Oregon Cavalry and "H," 1st W. T. Infantry, under the command of Colonel Maury, arrived at Fort Walla Walla on Tuesday last from their long campaign on the Plains. The officers and men are in good health. They have earned the quiet and repose of the Garrison. Col Maury, the able and gentlemanly commander of the Expedition, has gone to the Dalles.—W. W. Statesman.

Hydrophobia.—This dreadful malady is so rare in California that we have never before had to chronicle such an event. But the dog that broke that big mirror of Heuston, Hastings & Co., the celebrated Clothiers of Lick House, San Francisco, must certainly have been mad and no mistake. We understand the above firm have had a magnificent mirror manufactured by Cameron & Whittier, expressly to replace the one the dog broke.

A Mechanical Thief.—Some time during night before last some person or persons unknown abstracted from the show window of Goldsmith Bros. corner of Alder and Front streets, a gold specimen valued at about $40. The shelf of the window, which extends out over the sidewalk, is double, with two or three inches' space between the top and bottom boards. The operator, armed with a chisel and an inch bitt, bored twelve holes in such relation to each other that with slight application of the chisel, a circular piece of the lower board some four inches in diameter was removed. A similar operation, by boring ten holes, was performed on the inner board, or shelf proper, and a smaller piece, with the specimen they coveted, was removed. The implements were left near the place.

Shipment of Treasure.—The Sierra Nevada last evening carried away $260,483 besides the amount in the hands of passengers, which would doubtless swell the sum total to at least a million of dollars. The Hunt did not arrive from above in time to connect with the outgoing boat, and, as it subsequently transpired, her failure to connect with the boats above the Cascades, would have contributed nothing to increase the export cargo, either in passengers or treasure. Wells, Fargo & Co shipped to San Francisco $160,000, and the freight list of Richards & McCraken, Agents, shows a shipment of $100,483 by the following parties: H. W. Corbett, $3,500, Cohen, Lyon & Co, $18,300, Allen & Lewis, $17,000, Oregon Steam Navigation Co, $12,083, Ladd & Tilton, $5,500, Mayer & Co, $7,100, A. [illegible] & Co, $25,000.

Distinguished Departures.—Among the passengers on the steamer last evening were Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, who goes to fill a professional engagement in Victoria, and the Italian Count Castiglione, accompanied by N. Arrigoni, Esq., proprietor of the Pioneer Hotel, who is his fellow-townsmen. Count C. has spent some three or four weeks in this vicinity, and in the prosecution of his objects, the collection of animals, mineral specimens, &c, has disbursed about $3,000. He takes to California with him, en route for Italy, the elk we have already noticed. Major de Vecchi, who came hither with the Count, returned to San Francisco on the steamer of last week to make arrangements for their reception and re-shipment.

Descent on China.—The Grand Jury having true presentment made against two public Chinese brothels on Morrison street, the police officers made a descent upon the celestial [illegible], and transferred the resident inmates to a building more secure against the temptations of outside barbarians. The incidents at the time of the arrest, although ludicrous, are not exactly of a character to justify their publication in a respectable journal. Some unfortunate witnesses for the prosecution were secured about the same time.

A Good Example.—We notice a great improvement on the upper side of First street crossing Washington. The planking is sufficiently thick and wide to ensure a dry walk for many months to come. There is plenty of room for improvement at too many of the crossings in town, and we hope the example above cited will be generally followed. Many man traps in the sidewalks about the city ought to be attended to by the proper [illegible] before the planks want replacing altogether on account of the passage of those two irresistible and destructive agents, time and boot-leather.

Money Report of Recorder.—According to the report of Judge McCoy, City Recorder, the fines received in his Court from April 15th to Nov. 1st, amount to $731. This sum is within $61 of the total receipts of the last year, and double the amount received for any previous year. Judge McCoy holds Treasurer's receipts for $680, leaving a balance in the Recorder's hands of $51 in favor of the city.

Music.—The Portland Mechanics Band discoursed some excellent music early last evening on Washington street, and attracted quite a large and well behaved concourse of listeners, who remained until the band dispersed. We have recently heard their delightful harmonies on more than one occasion, as they honored their friends with a serenade in the "wee sma'" hours.

For the Holidays.—Goldsmith Brothers, on the corner, have just got up a lot of jewelry suitable for presents, and as the time honored custom of giving gifts during the holidays obtains in this country, we advise a perusal of their advertisement.

The Wilson G. Hunt arrived at about 7 o'clock, last evening, with some thirty or forty passengers, mostly residents of Willamette valley. Having failed to connect with the boats above, she brought no treasure except in private hands.

Freight Shipment.—The Sierra Nevada carried away 3,100 boxes apples, 50 head of cattle, 4 horses, 9 elk, 30 sheep, 9 hogs, 51 [illegible], 50 boxes eggs.

Sailed.—The steamship Sierra Nevada, Capt. Conner, sailed for Victoria and San Francisco at half past five last evening, with one hundred and fifty passengers.

Theatrical.—To-night G. B. Waldron appears as "Metamora" in the celebrated play of that name. We have already expressed our opinion of Mr Waldron as an artist, and had we not done so the intelligent people of Portland can discern the high order of his natural and acquired professional ability. Miss Edith Mitchell will appear as Nahmeokee, and Mrs Waldron as Oceana. The play is well cast, and will justify a good

A Distressing Headache Cured.

CINCINNATI, August 18, 1852.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—I have for many years been troubled with severe attacks of headache, which often reduced me to my bed. My sufferings have been very great, and no one can have any idea of their severity except those who have suffered with the same disease. I took your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, bathed my head with it, and rubbed it in well. I also took, at the same time, one half of a teaspoonful of saleratus dissolved in one-fourth of a tumbler of water. Soon after, I took a second dose of PANACEA, and it was just the thing for all the world, for it knocked the pain crazy, and I have not had the headache since, for whenever I feel it coming on I take the Panacea, which always checks it at once. Grand Union Rally.

At a meeting of the Union citizens of Polk county, held at Dallas on Saturday, October 31st, an organization was effected by electing Isaac Smith Chairman and Thomas Pearce Secretary. A Committee consisting of W. C. Whitson, Flannery, J. S. Holman, G. Seabrey and Patrick Haley, was appointed to prepare and report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. While the Committee were out, the Hon. Geo. H. Williams delivered a most telling speech, full of eloquence, argument and patriotism. At the close of the Judge's speech the Committee on resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That the object of the Union party of Polk county is to aid in preserving liberty and the Union of the States, to maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and laws, to put down the enemies of the Government, to thwart the designs of traitors and disloyalists and to protect and strengthen all loyal men without respect to sect or party.

Resolved, That the cardinal principles of our republican institutions to which we, as American citizens, stand pledged, imperatively demand of us to repudiate the doctrines of secession and all sympathy with them, and to give our unqualified support to our country and its constituted authorities in the great trial of civil war, until the last vestige of the present rebellion is extinguished; and to this end we are in favor of every means recognized in civilized warfare.

Resolved, That in the language of the lamented Douglas, we have "no sympathy with those who are attempting to make political capital out of the miseries of our country."

Resolved, That not to stand by the Government in this crisis would be a base desertion of our gallant countrymen now defending our flag in the field, and would render of no avail the blood already shed in defense of the Constitution and Union.

Resolved, That the cry of abolitionism, so persistently raised by the copperhead papers and politicians in this State and country against all those who favor the prosecution of the war for the suppression of a most wicked rebellion, has no terror to those who are determined to stand by the Government which was framed by our fathers in their wisdom and handed down to us to preserve and protect in all its purity.

Resolved, That we will not, under any circumstances, give our support to any man for office who has or does sympathize with armed or unarmed traitors to our Government.

Pending the motion to adopt the resolutions, Mr. John T. Outhouse offered a series of resolutions as a substitute for those offered by the Committee, premising the reading of them by the declaration that he was a Union man, and that he was equally opposed to secession and abolitionism. After the reading of the resolutions, (which he did himself) a motion prevailed to refer the resolutions to the Committee on resolutions. Mr. Outhouse being applied to by both the Secretary of the meeting and the Chairman of the Committee on resolutions, refused to furnish a copy, whereupon the original resolutions were adopted.

After the adoption of the resolutions, Hon. R. P. Boise delivered an effective address.

The speeches were listened to by the large assembly with marked attention and frequently responded to with bursts of enthusiastic applause.

The Salem and Monmouth brass bands were in attendance, enlivening the intervals with rich and patriotic music.

The Salem light artillery were also present, frequently and lustily belching forth "at the cannon's mouth" their appreciation of the exercises.

A County Union Committee was appointed as follows: Isaac M. Butler, Dallas precinct, John Chamberlain, Bridgeport, Wm. Seabrey, Luckiamute; H. Linnville, Lane; T. Pearce, Eola; A. Lucas, Monmouth; G. Eilers, Bethel; A. H. Frier, Salt Lake; G. B. Lavery, Jackson; S. Stone, Douglas.

After cheering for the speakers, the Union, the gallant soldiers in the field, the brass bands and artillery, the meeting adjourned.

ISAAC SMITH, Ch'n.

T. PEARCE, Sec'y.

SHARP PRACTICE.—A shrewd trick was recently practiced in London. A dandy, dressed up in the most faultless style, called at a large jewelry store, and after a short examination, bought a gold watch for twenty pounds, and he handed the rejoiced salesman a £100 note. He examined it carefully and finding it to be genuine he gave him the required change, £80. Just as he was stepping out of the store, he was met by another dandy, equally as well dressed, and whom he seemed to recognize. He exhibited his newly bought watch to his friend, and was very profuse in his praises about it and its fine finish. Both stepped back to the store, and a short persuasion on the part of the first dandy induced the new comer to buy a similar watch for the same price. He also paid for his watch with a £100 note (the English do not trouble themselves with small change), and received his change, after the experienced dealer had satisfied himself that the note was genuine. But just as the last dandy was in the act of pocketing the money and watch, both suddenly appeared very much agitated, they looked into the street, whispered to each other, then suddenly made a dash for the door. But to the dismay and discomfiture of both a constable jumped out of a carriage, collared them both, and with a triumphant, "I have got you at last, you scoundrels," led them back into the store. Here he informs the dealer that these gentlemen are two of the sharpest swindlers in London (which is saying a great deal), and asked the jeweller what business he had with them. "These gentlemen bought two gold watches for £40 and paid for them in good money," said the now frightened dealer. The constable laughed right out, and asked him if he had not been paid in hundred pound notes. The jeweller said that he had, fearful light beginning to dawn upon him. The constable then demanded to see the notes. The notes were produced and the constable informed the now wonder-stricken dealer that they were forged, and the culprits over whelmed with the weight of their guilt, silently acknowledged the deed. The vigilant officer, jubilant over this important catch, seizes money, watches and prisoners, and, summoning the jeweller to attend the bureau in an hour, puts the prisoners in a carriage and drives off at a gallop. Just as the last sound of the carriage had died way in the distance, the jeweller recovered from his surprise. It now occurred to him that it would have been better if he had accompanied the strange expedition. Breathless, he dashed out, but the cab had vanished. He made enquiries at the police bureau, but the sharp trio had vanished, and neither cab nor men were ever seen again. Deeply hurt at the immorality of the times, which even made the sacred uniforms of the police serve them in their nefarious schemes, the compatriot of the great McDonald returned home a sadder but a wiser man.

A certain Scotchman, who is not a member of the Temperance Society, being asked by a dealer to purchase some fine old Jamaica rum, drily answered, "To tell you the truth, sir, I canna say I'm very fond o' rum, for if I tak mair than sax tumblers, it's very apt to gie a body the headache."

Treaty with Liberia

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Republic of Liberia was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at London on the 21st day of October last, which treaty is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and the Republic of Liberia, desiring to fix in a permanent and equitable manner the rules to be observed in the intercourse and commerce they desire to establish between their respective countries, have agreed for this purpose, to conclude a treaty of commerce and navigation, and have judged that the said end cannot be better obtained than by taking the most perfect equality and reciprocity for the basis of their agreement; and to effect this they have named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, Charles Francis Adams, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of America at the Court of St. James; and the Republic of Liberia, his Excellency Stephen Allen Benson, President thereof, who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I. There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between the United States of America and the Republic of Liberia, and also between the citizens of both countries.

ARTICLE II. There shall be reciprocal freedom of commerce between the United States of America and the Republic of Liberia. The citizens of the United States of America may resort to and trade to any part of the territories of the Republic of Liberia to which any other foreigners are or shall be admitted. They shall enjoy full protection for their persons and properties; they shall be allowed to buy from and to sell to whom they like, without being restrained or prejudiced by any monopoly, contract or exclusive privilege of sale or purchase whatever; and they shall moreover enjoy all the rights and privileges which are or may be granted to any other foreign subjects or citizens of the most favored nation. The citizens of the Republic of Liberia shall in return enjoy similar protection and privileges in the United States of America and in their Territories.

ARTICLE III. No tonnage, import, or other duties or charges shall be levied in the Republic of Liberia on United States vessels, or on goods imported or exported in United States vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels; and in like manner no tonnage, import or other duties or charges shall be levied in the United States of America and their Territories on the vessels of the Republic of Liberia, or on goods imported or exported in those vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels.

ARTICLE IV. Merchandise or goods coming from the United States of America in any vessels, or imported in United States vessels from any country, shall not be prohibited by the Republic of Liberia, nor be subject to higher duties than are levied on the same kinds of merchandise or goods coming from any other foreign country or imported in any other foreign vessels. All articles the produce of the Republic of Liberia may be exported therefrom by citizens of the United States and United States vessels on as favorable terms as by the citizens and vessels of any other foreign country.

In like manner all merchandise or goods coming from the Republic of Liberia in any vessels, or imported in Liberian vessels from any country, shall not be prohibited by the United States of America, nor be subject to higher duties than are levied on the same kinds of merchandise or goods coming from any other foreign country or imported in any other foreign vessels. All articles the produce of the United States or of their Territories may be exported therefrom by Liberian citizens and Liberian vessels on as favorable terms as by the citizens and vessels of any other foreign country.

ARTICLE V. When any vessel of either of the contracting parties shall be wrecked, foundered, or otherwise damaged on the coasts, or within the territories of the other, the respective citizens shall receive the greatest possible aid, as well for themselves as for their vessels and effects. All possible aid shall be given to protect their property from being plundered and their persons from ill treatment. Should a dispute arise as to the salvage, it shall be settled by arbitration, to be chosen by the parties respectively.

ARTICLE VI. It being the intention of the two contracting parties to bind themselves by the present treaty to treat each other on the footing of the most favored nation, it is hereby agreed between them that any favor, privilege, or immunity whatever in matters of commerce and navigation, which either contracting party has actually granted or may hereafter grant, to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended to the citizens of the other contracting party gratuitously, if the concession in favor of that other State shall have been gratuitous, or in return for a compensation as nearly as possible of proportionate value and effect, to be adjusted by mutual agreement, if the concession shall have been conditional.

ARTICLE VII. Each contracting party may appoint consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions of the other; but no such consul shall enter upon the exercise of his functions until he shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government of the country to which he is sent.

ARTICLE VIII. The United States Government engages never to interfere, unless solicited by the Government of Liberia, in the affairs between the aboriginal inhabitants and the Government of the Republic of Liberia, in the jurisdiction and territories of the Republic. Should any United States citizens suffer loss, in person or property, from violence by the aboriginal inhabitants, and the Government of the Republic of Liberia should not be able to bring the aggressor to justice, the United States Government engages, a requisition having been first made therefor by the Liberian Government, to lend such aid as may be required. Citizens of the United States residing in the territories of the Republic of Liberia are desired to abstain from all such intercourse with the aboriginal inhabitants as will tend to the violation of law and a disturbance of the peace of the country.

ARTICLE IX. The present treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged at London within the space of nine months from the date hereof.

In testimony whereof, the Plenipotentiaries before mentioned have hereto subscribed their names and affixed their seals.

Done at London the twenty-first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS [SEAL.]
STEPHEN ALLEN BENSON [SEAL.]

And whereas the said treaty has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at London on the tenth ultimo, by Charles Francis Adams, Esquire, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at the Court of St. James, and Gerard Ralston, Esquire, Consul General and Commissioner for and on behalf of the Republic of Liberia, on the part of their respective Governments:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America, have caused the said treaty to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled, with good faith, by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eighteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

[L. S.] ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

DR. J C AYER. Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,

Bilious Disorders and Liver
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASH

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.
POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. Co., MICH.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN,

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the
PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PE
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
